

【Part-time course】 Class objectives

Class	Course objectives	CEFR	JLPT
First Step Japanese	This is the class for people studying Japanese for the first time. Memorizing simple vocabulary, be able to give proper greetings. Learning Hiragana and Katakana, be able to read basic words.
Elementary I	This is the class for people already mastered Hiragana and Katakana. Learning basic Japanese structure, conjunctions and grammar, be able to ask and answer questions. 〈number of words〉750-800 words	A1	N5
Elementary II	The study of Kanji begins. Using the familiar forms, be able to apply in various sentences and communicate in easy everyday conversations. 〈number of words〉1200-1300 words 〈kanji〉100 characters	A2	N4
Pre-Intermediate	Using easy expressions with beginner grammar, be able to describe various everyday situations. 〈number of words〉1700-1800 words 〈kanji〉200 characters	A2	N3
Intermediate I	Learning more complex sentence patterns, be able to express one's own opinion in various everyday situations. 〈number of words〉2100-2200 words 〈kanji〉300 characters	A2	N3
Intermediate II	Learning expressions with different point of views and studying situational usage of Japanese, be able to communicate more naturally and express one's own opinion on familiar topics. 〈number of words〉2500-2600 words 〈kanji〉400 characters	B1	N3
Advanced	Mastering familiar grammars, be able to converse using polite language and create sentences about topics with one's interest. 〈number of words〉5000 words 〈kanji〉600 characters	B1	N2

October, 2025